

FBQ1: One of the characteristics of a community is that the people must reside in the same_____

Answer: Geographical area

FBQ2: A community exists in a_____

Answer: Territorial area

FBQ3: A community is a tool for

Answer: Socialization

FBQ4: A group of people that communicate and reside in the same geographical area is called____

Answer: Community

FBQ5: Community participation_____

Answer: Directs people

FBQ6: The _____can also be defined as climate change

Answer: Environment

FBQ7: One of the elements of participation is_____

Answer: Structure

FBQ8: _____participation is one of the activities of informal groups

Answer: Formal

FBQ9: When you make friends in your neighbourhood association you have engaged in Informal _____

Answer: social participation

FBQ10: Participation slows down the process of social change_____

Answer: Non-governmental Organization

FBQ11: Communication process focuses on the _____ of the information

Answer: Sender

FBQ12: Participation encourages_____

Answer: Lobbying

FBQ13: Biodiversity preservation is part of _____

Answer: Sustainable development

FBQ14: _____development does not consider future generation

Answer: Sustainable

FBQ15: _____ factors are the most measurable and universal indicators of sustainability

Answer: Ecological

FBQ16: If nature is depleted faster than it can regenerate, humans will_____

Answer: Suffer

FBQ17: One of the four types of sustainability is _____

Answer: economic sustainability

FBQ18: Environmental management is one of the ways to stop _____

Answer: Drought

FBQ19: PRA means _____

Answer: Participatory Rural Arraisal

FBQ20: _____ is a technique used in the rural areas to obtain new information and formulate new hypothesis about rural life

Answer: RRA

FBQ21: _____ should not be part of a viable/appropriate method for planning and management of our environment.

Answer: Community participation

FBQ22: RRA refers to _____

Answer: Rapid Rural Appraisal

FBQ23: _____ is a tool for connecting people in an organization or community in order to achieve a common goal

Answer: Communication

FBQ24: Involvement of the community in resource/environmental management would help to achieve common goal in _____

Answer: Sustainability

FBQ25: Ranking exercise is the use of _____

Answer: Understand preference

FBQ26: The environment is under continuous pressure from the _____

Answer: Population

FBQ27: The search for economic independence leads to _____

Answer: environmental degradation

FBQ28: The ____ approach examines the community from the point of view of space and physical location.

Answer: Ecological

FBQ29: The ____ approach conceptualizes the community as a social system

Answer: Sociological

FBQ30: _____ sustainability is having a set amount of capital for a certain period

Answer: Economic

FBQ31: Environmental management is necessary if certain environmental _____ are to be properly checked

Answer: Phenomena

FBQ32: _____ can be defined as the involvement of people in a community in projects to solve their own problems

Answer: community participation

FBQ33: Environmental ____ can be a limited biological interpretation as in ecological analysis

Answer: Accounting

FBQ34: A ____ approach is one where an executive, decision makers, or other person or body makes a decision.

Answer: Top down

FBQ35: It is not advantageous for citizens within a community to participate in community based _____

Answer: Project

MCQ1: Community participation is concerned with involving _____

Answer: groups

MCQ2: Environmental degradation is not connected with human activities _____

Answer: yes

MCQ3: A key tool to achieving community participation is _____
Answer: communication

MCQ4: For a community to exist in unity, its people must _____ Answer: stick to common idea

MCQ5: The social science concept recognizes community as a tool for _____
Answer: socialization

MCQ6: The administrative process cannot bring order to the community _____
Answer: Never

MCQ7: _____ involves positively engaging the people and their leaders in making contributions on relevant projects in their communities
Answer: Participation

MCQ8: Identification of activities responsible for the continued existence of the community is a characteristic of _____ Answer: Sociological approach

MCQ9: Participation has political or _____ benefits
Answer: Economic

MCQ10: _____ is one of the four standard elements of participation
Answer: Legitimacy

MCQ11: Human activities contribute to environmental _____ Answer: Degradation

MCQ12: It is _____ for indigenes of a community to partake in community based project
Answer: beneficial

MCQ13: Communication is the transmission of _____ Answer: information

MCQ14: The main purpose of communication is to effect change by influencing _____
Answer: action

MCQ15: CBNRM means _____
Answer: Community Based Natural Resources Management

MCQ16: Involvement of the community in resource/environmental management would help in achieving _____ Answer: common goal in sustainability

MCQ17: Participatory Rural Appraisal is an approach mainly used by _____
Answer: Non-Governmental organization

MCQ18: Participatory mapping involves the use of one of these _____ Answer: Resource maps

MCQ19: _____ is an example of ranking exercise
Answer: Pair-wise ranking

MCQ20: RRA can be defined as _____ Answer: conducting action-oriented research

MCQ21: The problems of community participation can be solved by _____ Answer: provision of basic education to the people

MCQ22: _____ constitutes serious constraints to community development

Answer: Insincerity

MCQ23: CBO is short form of _____

Answer: Community Based Organization

MCQ24: International Organizations_____

Answer: care about environmental management

MCQ25: Professional networks provide_____

Answer: vital coordination in environmental management

MCQ26: NGO means_____

Answer: Non-Governmental Organization

MCQ27: Government funding of NGO activities can_____

Answer: jeopardize their independence

MCQ28: _____is an example of international relief NGO's

Answer: Red Cross

MCQ29: CGIAR is short form of _____

Answer: Consultative Group in International Agricultural Research Centre

MCQ30: GEOSS means_____

Answer: Global Earth Observation System of Systems

MCQ31: Formal participation is an activity based on_____

Answer: organized procedure

MCQ32: Communication message must carry _____

Answer: values that underline the context in which the people communicate

MCQ33: Civil society is_____

Answer: an organization

MCQ34: National orientation is one of the solutions to the problems of community participation____

Answer: yes

MCQ35: With RRA, the researcher may_____

Answer: survey the wrong area