

NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY OF NIGERIA
14-16 AHMADU BELLO WAY, VICTORIA ISLAND LAGOS
SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
MAY/JUNE 2012 EXAMINATION

JLS 642 FOUNDATION OF BROADCASTING (3 CR)
TIME ALLOWED: 3HRS

INSTRUCTIONS: ANY FOUR QUESTIONS

1. Broadcast stations perform crucial functions in Nigeria. Justify this statement in relation to those functions?
2. What do you think make radio distinct and more preferred to any other medium of communication?
 - b. Discuss the contributions of new media to information sharing and dissemination?
- 3a. Discuss the objectives of Nigerian Communication Commission (NCC) pertaining to radio and television?
 - b. Highlight the basic requirements before the application for radio or television licence is considered?
- 4a. As a professional broadcaster, discuss the uses of transmitter in broadcasting?
 - b. Give a vivid description of a radio studio?
5. Discuss at least five major functions of Audio console or audio control boards of a radio?
 - 6a. As a professional broadcaster, what are the steps you need to take into consideration when you want to produce a programme?
 - b. Above-the-line production personnel are key actors during programme production.

Mention them and discuss their contributions to programme production?