

Question QFBB1 : Onitsha market literature is grounded among the
.....

Answer: Masses

Question QFBB2 : _____pioneered the Yourba language novel.

Answer: D. O. Fagunwa

Question QFBB3 : In literature, the creation story of the Yoruba kingdom is known as _____

Answer: Myth

Question QFBB4 : The colonialists imposed their way ofwithout being mindful of our environment

Answer: Dressing

Question QFBB5 : The Palmwine Drunkard by Amos Tutuola is an embodiment of African.....

Answer: Orature

Question QFBB6 : Nigeria literature was influenced by ----- and ----- cultures

Answer: Western and Islamic

Question QFBB7 :established his own printing press for his writing to become more popular than others

Answer: Okigbo

Question QFBB8 : literature reflects the historical ideas of direct and indirect colonial incision into cultural set up of its society

Answer: Nigerian

Question QFBB9 : In modern times has become the most prominent genre literature

Answer: Novel

Question QFBB10 : Oral literature is also consider as museum

Answer: Cultural

Question QFBB11 : _____ greatly influenced the development of literature in Nigeria

Answer: Indigenous writing

Question QFBB12 : _____ had always stated the need to decolonise
African Literature

Answer: Ngugi

Question QFBB13 : Literature is divided into 2 Anglophone and
..... because of its colonial heritage

Answer: Francophone

Question QFBB14 : the equivalent of modern poetry in traditional literature is

Answer: Song

Question QFBB15 : Heart of Darkness was written by

Answer: Joseph Conrad

Question QFBB16 : Sofola is the lone female voice in the Nigerian drama tradition for quite sometimes before she was joined by other female playwrights

Answer: Zulu

Question QFBB17 : Gabriel Okara belongs to the pioneer..... In

Nigeria

Answer: Novelist

Question QFBB18 : Wives Revolt is a typical example of Drama.

Answer: Protest

Question QFBB19 : The Kwagh-Hir theatre is an example of

Answer: puppet show

Question QFBB20 : Christopher Okigbo fighting on the Biafra side

Answer: Died

Question QFBB21 : Mister Johnson, a novel written by is centred on the misrepresentation of Africans by a white person

Answer: Joyce Cary

Question QFBB22 : The Hausas had developed what may be referred to as special fusion of languages known as _____

Answer: Ajami

Question QFBB23 : Igbo, Yoruba and Hausa all had what may be called ..... Orthography

Answer: indigenous

Question QFBB24 : In most Nigeria writings, christianity is represented by.....

Answer: western tradition

Question QFBB25 : In the Igbo cultural tradition, a masked personae or character who disguises and assumes certain aura of divinity is known as

Answer: Masquerade

Question QFBB26 : Fouty Eight Guns For The General by Eddie Eroh is an example of works based on epoch

Answer: Historical

Question QFBB27 : A grammar of the Igbo language written in 1840 played a vital role in the development of.....

Answer: Onitsha literature

Question QFBB28 : argued that what was obtainable as dramatic rendition in African oral literature should not be considered as drama.

Answer: Ruth Finnegan

Question QFBB29 : The history of publishing in Nigeria had Phases

Answer: 3 phases

Question QFBB30 : Consciously or unconsciously, writers draw their
..... from their cultural background

Answer: Inspirations

Question QFBB31 : A disobedient fowl obeys in a pot of soup is an example of

Answer: Proverb

Question QFBB32 : _____ had always unequivocally stated that he was influenced by the need to respond to the lopsided portraiture of Africans by the colonialists

Answer: Achebe

Question QFBB33 : Royal bards sing _____ in courts to praise kings and noblemen

Answer: Praise songs

Question QFBB34 : The acronym NORLA stands for

Answer: North Regional Literature Agency

Question QFBB35 : Herbert Ogunde belongs to..... generation of playwrights

Answer: First

Question OMC1 : Traditional forms of oral literature are also referred to as:

Answer:

Question OMC2 : The earliest form of literature is

Answer:

Question OMC3 : African creative artists draw their inspiration from

Answer:

Question OMC4 : Generally, the term literature applies to

Answer:

Question OMC5 : Imaginative literature is a powerful form of _____ expression

Answer:

Question OMC6 : A writer uses words in there _____ and _____ ways in order to please his audience

Answer:

Question OMC7 : Oral Literature is words of _____ from generation to generation

Answer:

Question OMC8 : Oral literature reflects people's _____

Answer:

Question OMC9 : Oral literature is categorized into

Answer:

Question OMC10 : Traditionally, stories told during the moon light could be considered as modern form of

Answer:

Question OMC11 : In oral literature, fables are fictions stories of the _____ world

Answer:

Question OMC12 : Riddles, proverbs and tongue twisters are Forms of oral narratives

Answer:

Question OMC13 : Tongue twisters greatly help in the education of

Answer:

Question OMC14 : Riddles are usually wrapped up in _____

Answer:

Question OMC15 : As a form of literary expression, most African languages are rich in.....

Answer:

Question OMC16 : Proverbs are used in conveying

Answer:

Question OMC17 : Songs, Chants and recitation are considered as.....

Answer:

Question OMC18 : Dirge is a poetic rendition of

Answer:

Question OMC19 : All the following are oral poetry except;

Answer:

Question OMC20 : Traditional performances could be regarded as

Answer:

Question OMC21 : All aspects of Oral literature involve one sort of performance or the other

Answer:

Question OMC22 : believes that it is difficult to separate ritual and drama

Answer:

Question OMC23 : Ancestral worship is practiced in traditional societies because it is believed that the ancestors are

Answer:

Question OMC24 : An element of impersonation is found in a festival

Answer:

Question OMC25 : One prominent feature of carnival is

Answer:

Question OMC26 : The 3 basic concepts of fiction, falsehood and history are inter-related in the art of telling stories

Answer:

Question OMC27 : One of the charges brought about in oral literature in Nigeria is the introduction of the form of literature

Answer:

Question OMC28 : Two notable influences on Nigerian literature are

Answer:

Question OMC29 : According to Achebe, he started writing because he wanted to

Answer:

Question OMC30 : Mister Johnson by Joyce Cary is a typical misrepresentation of the African life and world view in western literature

Answer:

Question OMC31 : Oral literature is in existence from time immemorial and it varies from

Answer:

Question OMC32 : Works based on colonial historical materials include, except

Answer:

Question OMC33 : A disobedient fowl obeys in a pot of soup is an example of

Answer:

Question OMC34 : Drama and ritual are reciprocal in fiction and similar in structure. This view is held by

Answer:

Question OMC35 : A conscious attempt at dealing theatrical production with a given setting is known as

Answer: