

MCQ1: One of these is used to announce the arrival of an important guest into a community

Answer: Canon shots

MCQ2: _____ are metaphors that include written and spoken language as well as visual objects, standing for some quality of reality that is enhanced in importance

Answer: Symbolography

MCQ3: _____ are normally tied to symbolise certain things in certain cultures

Answer: Knots

MCQ4: To denote that trespass on the farmland is forbidden _____ are hung at the entrance

Answer: Palm fronds and snail shells

MCQ5: _____ is usually regarded as "emotions recollected in tranquillity"

Answer: Poetry

MCQ6: palm filled with sand Is Used To Signify The Start Of _____

Answer: A fight

MCQ7: _____ Are Used by farmers to signify the first to get to a meeting point

Answer: Leaves

MCQ8: If the beaded staff of the Oba is found on any piece of farmland, it denotes that the farmland is

Answer: In dispute

MCQ9: One of the following is not a type of symbolography

Answer: Canons

MCQ10: _____ is used to signify the death or funeral of a very important personality in the community, as well as to warn or draw attention to some danger in the forest

Answer: Gunshots

MCQ11: Which of the following is a function of communication?

Answer: All of the options

MCQ12: Which of the Following Is a characteristic of African communication?

Answer: Channel credibility

MCQ13: One of the problems of indigenous communication is _____

Answer: Definition in modern language

MCQ14: Language is systematic, articulate and _____

Answer: Ordered

MCQ15: The correspondence between sound and meaning of language is determined by _____

Answer: Culture

MCQ16: _____ is not non-verbal because it possess all the characteristics of language",

Answer: Sign language

MCQ17: Which of the following is hardware of music?

Answer: All of the options

MCQ18: _____ is second only to face in communicating emotions

Answer: Voice

MCQ19: Rothwell (2000:132) stated that "the _____ is your personal billboard"
Answer: Face

MCQ20: A type of non-verbal communication used during transactions include
Answer: All of the options

MCQ21: _____ is represented by a pulpy substance produced from cam-wood
Answer: Red

MCQ22: _____ are designs printed on people's faces, hands, body and at calves.
Answer: Tattoos

MCQ23: _____ is a "...group of self-sounding instruments which produce sound when they are struck, scratched, or shaken.
Answer: Idiophone

MCQ24: _____ are used primarily by religious organisations to summon members to prayers and services
Answer: Bell

MCQ25: Ceremonies celebrated in Africa include christening, wedding and _____ Answer: Funerals

MCQ26: Demonstrative communication include _____ and _____ Answer: Music, signal

MCQ27: _____ is mostly used to get attention, opening as well as to announce, closing and break-time
Answer: Bell

MCQ28: Examples of records include _____
Answer: All of the options

MCQ29: _____ speaks and informs the people and public of victories, achievements, purity of heart, peace and goodwill.
Answer: White colour

MCQ30: visual communication channels include _____
Answer: All of the options

MCQ31: _____ are appliances of instrumental sound in traditional channels of communication.
Answer: Gongs

MCQ32: Musical instruments in African communication include _____
Answer: All of the options

MCQ33: _____ is usually beaten during hunters' festival
Answer: Agere

MCQ34: _____ are yoruba group drums beaten mainly during the Ifa festival.
Answer: Bata

MCQ35: _____ are membranophones tightly wrapped at the top and bottom for highly sensitive sounding ones used by shrine worshippers and oracles.
Answer: Obene

FBQ1: _____ is the belief, custom, tradition, practices and social behaviour of a particular nation and its people.
Answer: Culture

FBQ2: _____ in communication deals with effectiveness of communication.

Answer: Values

FBQ3: Folktales and proverbs are a _____ of traditional channels of communication

Answer: Classification

FBQ4: Human language has two aspects Namely:

Answer: Biological and social

FBQ5: _____ refers to all signs and gestures made with any part of the human body for the purpose of communication

Answer: Body language

FBQ6: The most immediate cues used to form first impressions are _____

Answer: Facial communication

FBQ7: The ability to talk about an event that is far away in space and time is described as

Answer: Displacement

FBQ8: _____ is a set of arbitrary symbols, matched with meaning and used by a group of people for communication

Answer: Language

FBQ9: _____ is a continuous process of information dissemination, entertainment and education used in societies which have not been seriously dislocated by Western culture or any other external influence.

Answer: Traditional communication

FBQ10: The norms and values of each individual group under a particular ethnic group or tribe is known as _____

Answer: Tradition

FBQ11: _____ is an alphabet or code in which letters are represented by a combination of long and short light or sounds and signals

Answer: Morse code

FBQ12: Wriggle, fidget, finger-tap, and arm flail body in motion constitute _____ communication

Answer: Gestural

FBQ13: Verbal communication possesses the characteristics of _____

Answer: Language

FBQ14: _____ enhances the power and seriousness of verbal messages.

Answer: Accentuation

FBQ15: _____ is the use of designs or pastes to deliver messages, information, and warnings, stir up joy, sorrow etc. in and among people.

Answer: Pigmentation

FBQ16: Facial marks and scars communicate personal satisfaction, achievements and _____

Answer: Status

FBQ17: _____ communicate social grouping, associations, age, profession and other demographic variable

Answer: Clothes

FBQ18: Visual communication can be grouped into

Answer: Colours

FBQ19: _____ reduces ambiguity and enhances the accuracy of message perception. '

Answer: Repetition

FBQ20: _____ are gestures made with one part of the body, usually the hands, rubbing, squeezing, cleaning, or grooming another part of the body

Answer: Manipulators

FBQ21: _____ are generally regarded as standing for or representing something

Answer: Icons

FBQ22: where part of an object is used to convey messages, it is described as being _____

Answer: Objectified

FBQ23: _____ signifies long lasting relationships as used in traditional marriage in Nigeria.

Answer: Alligator pepper

FBQ24: Ugboajah (1979) noted that traditional societies of Nigeria communicate more using informal than _____ mechanism

Answer: Formal

FBQ25: _____ is placing objects or devices in a particular way to convey meaning

Answer: Symbolography

FBQ26: _____ are media on which sound is produced through the vibration of membranes.

Answer: Membranophones

FBQ27: Brooms can communicate quarrel and _____

Answer: Settlement

FBQ28: _____ are used in coronation as well as to indicate titled chief.

Answer: Feathers

FBQ29: Wooden drum as an example of _____ instrumental device of communication.

Answer: Idiophones

FBQ30: An assemblage of public information, which are highly informative, reminding and effective according to Ogwezzy (1999) are called _____

Answer: Records

FBQ31: _____ signifies that no one should visit the stream

Answer: Rainbow

FBQ32: A hunter who carries a gun with a palm frond label clearly tells the villagers that he has _____

Answer: Shot a great animal

FBQ33: _____ is the hardware of music

Answer: Instrumental device

FBQ34: _____ is the oldest musical instrument

Answer: Drum

FBQ35: _____ is the name of various accessories such as neck/wrist/ and waist beads tell about places of origin, show royal status/title in the society, ethnic nationality and occasion amongst others.

Answer: Costume