

Question Sociology is the ----- concerned with developing systematic reliable knowledge about the product of such relationships.0

Question The word sociology was conceived first by -----0

Question ----- can be defined as the largest group of people inhabiting a specific territory

Question The word 0Sociology0 was first termed in which year?0

Question The earliest and least complex society formed by people thousands of years ago is known as -----0

Question ----- is a type of society characterized by greater surpluses of production and people no longer had to move about to search for fertile soils.0

Question The early classical works in sociology of the late 19th and early 20th centuries was produced in France and -----

Question The ----- Approach enables us to understand issues which can be grasped only if we comprehend their background.0

Question There are ----- approaches to subject matter in sociology.0

Question The idea of applying the scientific method to the social world is known as -----0

Question ----- was sometimes called the second founder of sociology0

Question The principle of 0 the survival of the fittest0 was propounded by -----0

Question ----- came to England after being exiled from his native Germany for proposing revolution, believed that the engine of human history is 0class conflict0.0

Question ----- supported revolution as the only way that the workers could gain control of the society.0

Question ----- conducted a rigorous research comparing the suicide rate of several European countries.0

Question Wright Mills developed the ----- between 1916 and 19620

Question The Sociological perspectives works beyond commonly accepted or officially defined goals of -----0

Question There are ----- major orthodox view of the goals and tactics of the natural sciences.0

Question Social and ----- have contributed greatly to the comparative analysis of societies by exploring the ways of life among human communities through the world,

Question ----- studies both similarities and different characteristics of the culture of man. 0

Question Family, marriage, kinship, economy, politics, rituals, religion etc are known as -----0

Question ----- is the study of government.0

Question Sociology must take over and digest all the data studied by concrete sciences and deprive them of their reason for existence was believed by ____0

Question Sociology analyses social life at the level of interpersonal, group and -----0

Question -----level is the level of analyses that deal with groups and group relations.

Question A space very close to the individual's body is known as -----

Question Distance zone which extends from 18 inches to 4 feet is called -----0

Question The most important types of contemporary conflict are Class and ----- conflicts.

Question ----- is a process situation in which individuals or groups work together to perform a task or to reach a commonly valued goal.

Question ----- is a type of cooperation that represents a precarious working relationship which is overshadowed by latent conflict.0

Question Conflict resolution on the part of a victorious party who will imposed on the loser is called -----0

Question ----- is a temporary agreement to cease active conflict for some period of time.0

Question Every society is made up of different groups with different -----0

Question ----- are movement represented by religious and fashion movement.

Question ----- is an imaginary model or sociologist's conceptualization of how social relationships works

Question Emile Durkheim received the first academic appointment in sociology in ----- year

Question Durkheim identified the following results after his rigorous research by comparing suicide rate among European countries except -----

Question An ideal bureaucracy according to weber should have the following characteristics except -----

Question Problems of bureaucracy are the following except -----

Question ----- depend on the technology of computers, telephone system and copiers.0

Question Organizational environment includes the following except

-----0

Question Auguste Comte first conceived the word sociology in ----- year0

Question The word sociology is a combination of ----- and
-----0

Question The groups that society study include the following except
-----

Question ----- is the largest group of people inhabiting a specific territory.000

Question ----- stresses social relationships or interactions, rather than individuals

Question Sociology as a ----- has developed reliable knowledge about relationship within the society.

Question The following are the different forms of society that are classified except -----

Question ----- is the simplest society which appeared in history after people discovered how to cultivate grains.

Question The preindustrial societies were involved in the following except
-----

Question The following characteristics are for industrialized society except -----.0

Question The following information are sociological view of the society
except -----

Question The idea of applying the scientific method to the social world was first proposed by -----.

Question ----- is the level of analysis that deal with groups and group relations.

Question ----- was a contemporary of Emile Durkheim

Question The contrasts or characteristics of sociological perspective are the following except -----.

Question ----- characterized the sociological perspective as 0 seeing the general in particular00

Question Benefits of the sociological perspective are the following except
-----0

Question The following are generalizations in social science in general
except -----

Question There are ----- important reasons why some writers think that social sciences must resemble some branch of the natural sciences.

Question One of the following is not scientific explanation
00

Question Sociology shares with the following subjects/courses except
-----

Question ----- deals or concerns with the spatial analysis of man's territorial organization

Question ----- believed that sociology must take over and digest all the data studied by these concrete sciences.

Question ----- gave a line of demarcation pertaining to the content of sociology

Question The following are the levels of analysis in sociology except -----

Question ----- is the social connection between two or more persons

Question The sociological analysis that deals with whole communities or society is called -----

Question A space very close to the individual's body is known as -----

Question A sociologist , Ervin Goff man developed the concept of ----- 