

Question FBQ1 : Mangrove swamps is found in _____ state.

Answer: Sapele

Question FBQ2 : The Nigerian rainforest zone is rich in rubber, coconut and _____ trees.

Answer: Cocoa

Question FBQ3 : _____ is study of variety of birdlife.

Answer: Ornithologist

Question FBQ4 : In Nigeria the _____ tree is harvested for planks.

Answer: Iroko

Question FBQ5 : _____ savanna exists in the northern part of Borno State.

Answer: Sahel

Question FBQ6 : _____ state is part of mangrove vegetation in Nigeria

Answer: Lagos

Question FBQ7 : _____ forests thrive in marine and brackish habitat.

Answer: Mangrove forest

Question FBQ8 : _____ movements bring the wet season to all areas south of its location.

Answer: Northward

Question FBQ9 : The major soil types in Nigeria according to the FAO soil taxonomy legends is _____.

Answer: Regosols

Question FBQ10 : _____ zone is the second zone of the lake. littoral

Answer: Limnetic

Question FBQ11 : The geology of Nigeria is dominated by _____ structures that forms most of the highlands and hills

Answer: Igneous

Question FBQ12 : Cool, dry and stable tropical continental air mass originates from the _____ desert.

Answer: Sahara

Question FBQ13 : There are two types of lakes namely oligotropic and _____ lake.

Answer: Eutrophic

Question FBQ14 : Lakes accounts for _____ % of all the water apart from the oceans on the earth surface

Answer: 75

Question FBQ15 : The planet earth looks _____ in colour

Answer: Blue

Question FBQ16 : _____ % of the plants and animal life are found in the ocean zones

Answer: 10

Question FBQ17 : _____ is the oceanic zone that enjoys the most sunlight

Answer: Euphoric Zone

Question FBQ18 : The world's major terrestrial ecosystem can be divided into deserts, grasslands and _____

Answer: Forest

Question FBQ19 : _____ are key predators in ocean ecosystem.

Answer: Sharks

Question FBQ20 : Exploitative interactions include predation and _____

Answer: Parasitism

Question FBQ21 : Species consisting of populations of _____ individuals are able to reproduce successfully with others populations

Answer: Inter-Breeding

Question FBQ22 : In a food chain the highest organisms is called the _____

Answer: Tertiary consumer

Question FBQ23 : Aquatic ecosystem can be classified as oceans, lakes, rivers and _____

Answer: Estuaries

Question FBQ24 : in an ecosystem, more organisms are involved in a/an _____ ecology

Answer: Food web

Question FBQ25 : In the energy pyramid the highest number of organisms is found in the _____

Answer: Primary producers

Question FBQ26 : The constant transfer of essential nutrients from the living organisms to the physical environment in a cyclical pathway is called _____

Answer: Biogeochemical

Question FBQ27 : _____ cycles are responsible primarily for the movement of nutrients back and forth in the atmosphere and hydrosphere and living organisms.

Answer: Gaseous

Question FBQ28 : Plants get their _____ by absorbing carbon dioxide from the atmosphere through photosynthesis

Answer: Oxygen

Question FBQ29 : _____ species migrate or are deliberately introduced into an ecosystem by humans

Answer: Alien

Question FBQ30 : The largest desert in the world is the _____ desert.

Answer: Sahara

Question FBQ31 : An area between forest and deserts is called _____

Answer: Grassland

Question FBQ32 : A _____ is a freshwater ecosystem

Answer: River

Question FBQ33 : The _____ desert is an example of temperate deserts

Answer: Mojave

Question FBQ34 : Tropical rainforest are found in areas near the

Answer: Equator

Question FBQ35 : _____ is an example of marine or saltwater ecosystem

Answer: Oceans

Question MCQ1 : _____ is an example of temperate deciduous forest plant

Answer: Oak maple

Question MCQ2 : _____ grasslands are characterized by bitterly cold, with icy gale like winds, usually covered with snow and ice.

Answer: Polar

Question MCQ3 : The oceanic zone is known as the darkness zone in the

Answer: Abyssal Zone

Question MCQ4 : _____ currents move slowly around the world

Answer: Thermohaline

Question MCQ5 : Which is not a major ocean of the world ?

Answer: Bermuda Ocean

Question MCQ6 : _____ are large deep, human-made bodies of standing fresh water.

Answer: Reservoirs

Question MCQ7 : _____ zone of the lake is the bottom of the lake with mostly large members of decomposers

Answer: Benthic

Question MCQ8 : _____ is known as water loving plants

Answer: Hydrophytes

Question MCQ9 : The warm and moist tropical marine air mass originates from the _____ ocean.

Answer: Indian

Question MCQ10 : The following are the importance of wetlands except?

Answer: Leaning

Question MCQ11 : _____ is an example of coastal vegetation of Nigeria.

Answer: Rainforest

Question MCQ12 : The hydrology of the country is influenced by the _____ structure

Answer: Geologic

Question MCQ13 : Tropical xerophytic woodland covering the northern most _____ of the country

Answer: 22%

Question MCQ14 : It is instructive to know _____ was not an important part of vegetation

Answer: Grass

Question MCQ15 : Strand vegetation consists mainly of shrubs such as Hibiscus _____

Answer: Tiliaceous

Question MCQ16 : _____ is a salt-tolerant plants that grows at the end of mangrove swamps

Answer: Halophytes

Question MCQ17 : Nigerian strand vegetation is in great danger of being totally eliminated by _____

Answer: Oil Pollution

Question MCQ18 : Red mangrove _____ is the commonest species of the Nigerian mangrove area.

Answer: Rhizophora

Question MCQ19 : _____ means collective bird fauna.

Answer: Avifauna

Question MCQ20 : The most common species of diatoms are _____.

Answer: Coscinodiscus Spp

Question MCQ21 : _____ are animals occupying a special environment.

Answer: Fauna

Question MCQ22 : _____ is a tree species of riparian forests.

Answer: Senegalensis

Question MCQ23 : Savanna occupies nearly _____ of the land surface of Nigeria.

Answer: 80%

Question MCQ24 : Which of the the following is not a submerged plants _____

Answer: Cistia

Question MCQ25 : Which of the following is not a savanna _____

Answer: Shaheel

Question MCQ26 : _____ ants are very ferocious and nomadic in nature.

Answer: Soldier

Question MCQ27 : Another name for deforestation is called _____.

Answer: Devegetation

Question MCQ28 : All of the following could lead to desertification except?

Answer: Excess flooding

Question MCQ29 : The argument against the free market was very strong at _____ conference on environment in 1992

Answer: Rio

Question MCQ30 : _____ transmit a major cattle disease called trypanosomiasis

Answer: Tsetse Fly

Question MCQ31 : An ecosystem is said to be _____ when disturbed

Answer: Unstable

Question MCQ32 : Which of the following is not an amphibious vertebrate?

Answer: None

Question MCQ33 : Managing biodiversity is also known as

_____.

Answer: Wildlife

Question MCQ34 : _____ a species of animal about to go into extinction in delta area of

Answer: White throated monkey

Question MCQ35 : _____ of all primates are found only in tropical forest regions of Africa

Answer: 90%