

MCQ1: The modules prepared under the auspices of the National Implementation Committee on National Policy on Education expects that teacher across the country will achieve all of these except Answer: Teach different topics in detail

MCQ2: Which of the following is NOT a benefit derived from using modules
Answer: Encourages teachers to search for knowledge

MCQ3: Which of these is NOT in the PSSS curriculum module
Answer: Learning outcomes

MCQ4: Pattern means an enduring method of ---- or ---- things
Answer: Structuring, organizing

MCQ5: Which of these is NOT an element of social studies content
Answer: The component strand

MCQ6: Building units of instruction around main ideas or concepts is known as ----
Answer: The conceptual strand

MCQ7: Developing units through classifying, categorizing, generalizing and similar processes is known as ----
Answer: The thinking strand

MCQ8: One of these is NOT considered when planning a social studies curriculum
Answer: Contribution to academic discipline

MCQ9: One of these factors does NOT influence the teaching of social studies in school
Answer: Personal development

MCQ10: Teachers are motivated to put in their best
Answer: Presenting of awards to the deserving ones and Sponsorship of training programmes

MCQ11: McKeachie (1994) suggests the first step to developing a lesson plan as Answer: Determining the objective of the lesson

MCQ12: All these are important for planning for a lesson except: 1) opportunities for predicting possible problems, 2. A sign of professionalism, 3. Provides opportunity of deal with time constraints 4. Identify what learners should do at the end of the lesson
Answer: 1, 2, 3 and 4

MCQ13: Which of these combinations is the right principle of lesson planning? 1. Aims 2. Objectives 3. Variety 4. Flexibility
Answer: 1, 3, and 4

MCQ14: One of these combinations is not part of the five-E model for structuring the sequence of a lesson 1, Elaborate 2. Explore 3. Engage 4. Evaluate Answer: None of the options

MCQ15: The lesson plan outline is made up of these stages except Answer: Lesson evaluation and revision

MCQ16: The teacher needs to understand the following developmental characteristics of the learners to be able to be effective and also meet their learning needs.
Answer: External factors

MCQ17: Which of the following is not on Mel Silberman (1993) list of what students do while learning is going on Answer: Come up with a list of queries

MCQ18: Meyers and Jones (1993) basic assumptions on active learning are Answer: That learning is by nature an active endeavour and different people should learn in different ways

MCQ19: The method of teaching in which the teacher delivers a planned lesson with little or no instructions to students is known as
Answer: Expository method

MCQ20: One of these is not an example of the oldest style of teaching for impacting knowledge. 1) the act of telling, informing and instructing the listener. 2) it is student centered. 3) it is teacher centered
Answer: 2

MCQ21: Social studies is defined as common learnings of man's interaction with his/her social and physical environment. This definition is by
Answer: SSSP (1971) and NERDC (1983)

MCQ22: Social studies is all of these except Answer: Indoctrination and critical acceptance of beliefs

MCQ23: Social studies focuses on man's relationship with his ----- and ----- environment
Answer: Natural, man-made environment

MCQ24: Social studies include issues such as these with the exception of Answer: A persons way of life

MCQ25: Social studies is not developed from one of these subjects
Answer: Mathematics

MCQ26: Social studies is one of the subjects that contribute to the attainment of the following except Answer: National disunity

MCQ27: One reason social studies was introduced in school is to reduce the influence of ----- on children
Answer: Colonial education

MCQ28: What type of education is from birth to death?
Answer: Traditional social education

MCQ29: The main objective of the traditional social education is:
Answer: To enable the child grow into functional member of a family and society

MCQ30: The main sources of obtaining instructional materials for social studies in primary schools are all of these except Answer: Resources in the packs

MCQ31: The following is step by step tips in designing visual aids except Answer: Organize your information

MCQ32: Dale Edgar's research confirms that students are likely to retain ----- of what they say and do
Answer: 90%

MCQ33: A reason why teachers are sometimes constrained in the learning process is Answer: When they do not have materials to teach

MCQ34: According to ----- "evaluation is the process of delineating, obtaining and providing information about an educational programme which is to be used in describing, understanding and making decisions".
Answer: Straton (1985)

MCQ35: Evaluation is an assessment of one or more phases of the ----- Answer: Curriculum process

FBQ1: Learning becomes easy when learners are in a ----- environment that is free from threat
Answer: conductive

FBQ2: The theory of the cone states that people learn best when their experiences are concrete rather than -----.
Answer: Abstract

FBQ3: The three practical instructional levels of the cognitive domain are fact, understanding and -----
Answer: Application

FBQ4: The ----- domain focuses on skill development.
Answer: Psychomotor

FBQ5: A teaching method is a particular -----
Answer: type of instruction

FBQ6: The type of lecture method where a teacher delivers a planned lesson to learners with a little instructional aid is known as ----- method
Answer: Expository

FBQ7: The activity method refers to the use of physical and ----- actions aimed at stimulating creative expression and application of principles and knowledge to solve problems.
Answer: mental

FBQ8: Activity where learners practice skills in real situations is known as ----- homework
Answer: Real life

FBQ9: The ----- method is not an effective method for teaching social studies.
Answer: Expository

FBQ10: A method that is characterized by learner's active involvement in systematic and scientific steps, to find out about something is known as ----- method
Answer: Inquiry

FBQ11: The questions asked by the teacher who uses the ----- will allow learners to explore ideas.
Answer: Questioning technique

FBQ12: A ----- is a formal discussion of differing sides of an issue.
Answer: Debate

FBQ13: Brainstorming is the process of spontaneously generating ideas or ----- about a topic.
Answer: Information

FBQ14: One way of ensuring effective learning is by making the ----- real for learners.
Answer: Experience

FBQ15: Instructional materials usually contribute to the ----- depth and variety of learning.
Answer: Efficiency

FBQ16: Learners retain what they see and hear by -----
Answer: 90%

FBQ17: The more materials available to a teacher, the more chances learners have to fully understand the subject. TRUE OR FALSE

Answer: TRUE

FBQ18: Taking inventory of all resources in the school including library resources is known as -----

Answer: Stock taking

FBQ19: Teaching materials help teachers explain ideas in a ----- way

Answer: concrete

FBQ20: Pieces of paper or cardboard with words or pictures on them used for teaching or reinforcing certain concepts and ideas are known as -----

Answer: Flashcards

FBQ21: ----- defined social studies as a discipline in which teaching and learning of attitudes, values and skills overshadow the acquisition of facts and information

Answer: Barth and Shermis (1950)

FBQ22: Which definition of social studies may be considered as a standard definition?

Answer: NERDC

FBQ23: Social Studies focuses on man's relationship with his natural and ----- environments.

Answer: Man-made

FBQ24: Social Studies was introduced into the Nigerian school system with the goal of breaking down regional, ethnic and religious allegiances, in order to -----

Answer: promote national unity

FBQ25: Nigeria experienced its first coup d'état in -----

Answer: 1966

FBQ26: Members of the community mentor young ones to learn survival and -----

Answer: economic skills

FBQ27: ----- education refers to education, which Nigerians pass down to succeeding generations as distinct from the western type of education

Answer: Traditional social

FBQ28: The ----- forms the child's learning experiences

Answer: Entire environment

FBQ29: The main objective of traditional social education is always to enable the child grow into a ----- of the family and the society

Answer: functional member

FBQ30: Social studies in its present form, scope and content was introduced into the primary school curriculum in the -----

Answer: 70's

FBQ31: A pad of large paper sheets on a stand for presenting information is called -----

Answer: Flip chart

FBQ32: Learning resources that appeal to the sense of hearing are known as -----

Answer: Audio Aids

FBQ33: Objects, work of art, relics that are used for teaching/learning because it makes the learning experience real to learners are called
Answer: Artefacts

FBQ34: A ----- is a collection of documents that supports the teaching or subject matter.
Answer: Resource pack

FBQ35: What is the full meaning of OHP?
Answer: Over-head Projector