

NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY OF NIGERIA
14/16 AHMADU BELLO WAY, VICTORIA ISLAND, LAGOS
SCHOOL OF LAW
JUNE/JULY 2013 EXAMINATIONS

COURSE CODE: LAW 444

COURSE TITLE: ADMINISTRATIVE LAW II

TIME ALLOWED: 3 Hours

INSTRUCTION: Answer any 5 questions. All questions carry equal marks

1. Enumerate and carefully discuss the concept of administrative powers in Administrative law.
2. Judicial review is one of the most potent powers in the hands of the judiciary in a democratic system of government. Comment.
3. The prerogative remedies are powerful instruments in the hands of the Courts with which they prevent abuse of power and ensure the liberty of the citizen. Discuss.
4. Modern administration cannot function without the use of delegated legislation. Despite the great benefits it is still contrary to the principles of separation of powers. Discuss
5. The rules of natural justice are critical to administrative adjudicatory process. Thoroughly examine this statement in view of decided authorities.
6. Procedural fairness is one of the concepts developed to ensure just determination of issues. Discuss
7. Enumerate and carefully analyse the various models of procedural justice. Discuss the concept of substantive unfairness.
8. The local government system in Nigeria is not, properly speaking, a third tier of government. Examine this statement in view of legal authorities.
9. The doctrine of ultra vires is an important principle in Administrative Law. Discuss.