

Question FBQ1 : A child's first words are ----- in nature

Answer: Egocentric

Question FBQ2 : The speech that communicates something is known as ---- speech

Answer: Sociocentric

Question FBQ3 : People that can use two languages are -----

Answer: Bilingual

Question FBQ4 : Comparable damage to the left hemisphere of an adult brain leads to permanent -----

Answer: Aphasia

Question FBQ5 : English language in Nigeria is an important ----- factor

Answer: Unifying

Question FBQ6 : To be able to speak two languages very well, children need lots of -----

Answer: Practice

Question FBQ7 : Handwriting is the same as -----

Answer: Penmanship

Question FBQ8 : ----- Distinguish human beings from lower animals

Answer: Language

Question FBQ9 : People are culture producing as well as culture -----

Answer: Produced

Question FBQ10 : Language development is influenced by both innate and ----- factors

Answer: Environmental

Question FBQ11 : According to -----, language is rule governed

Answer: Chomsky

Question FBQ12 : Skinner propounded that the rate of producing a particular reaction or response can be increased if it is immediately followed by a ----- stimulus

Answer: Reinforcing

Question FBQ13 : Children generally have the ----- to learn languages

Answer: Facility

Question FBQ14 : Human beings express themselves using a system of vocal conventional signs characteristic of the interaction of one or more communities of human beings. This is known as -----

Answer: Language

Question FBQ15 : ----- Is a phenomenon that distinguishes human beings from lower animals

Answer: Language

Question FBQ16 : The innate ability present in every individual to learn and understand is called -----

Answer: Intelligence

Question FBQ17 : Fafunwa sees ----- as a base for learning subsequent languages

Answer: Mother tongue

Question FBQ18 : Two people must be talking about the same subject before they can be said to be -----

Answer: Communicating

Question FBQ19 : ----- is a series of soft, mainly vowel sounds which seem to be produced when the baby is relaxed and contented.
Answer: Cooing

Question FBQ20 : The two syllable sounds that babies make like da-da, ka-ka, di-di, je-je, where the second syllable is a repetition of the first is known as ----
Answer: Babbling

Question FBQ21 : The ability to see similarities and differences is known as ----- Answer: Visual discrimination

Question FBQ22 : The freedom of a child to choose the book to read is a major feature of the --- reading approach
Answer: Individualistic

Question FBQ23 : ----- Described the fixed developmental pattern of language in normal children as milestones
Answer: Lenneberg

Question FBQ24 : Reading is magical, powerful and ----- Answer: Transforming

Question FBQ25 : The situation where children read the same book in turns is called the ----- approach
Answer: Class reading

Question FBQ26 : in language use Skinner asserts that babies' babbling behavior is ----- behavior
Answer: Operant, An operant

Question FBQ27 : At what stage does a child use some 1-2 word questions ("Go, bye bye", What's that?) ?
Answer: 1-2 years

Question FBQ28 : One of the most remarkable aspects of a child's development is the growth in his/her ability to use and understand -----
Answer: Language

Question FBQ29 : Human beings have the innate ability to be ____ Answer: Creative

Question FBQ30 : Listening and reading are regarded as ----- skills
Answer: Oratory

Question FBQ31 : Book reading benefits children more if it is ----- Answer: Interactive

Question FBQ32 : Skinner's language learning theory is expressed in his book titled ----
Answer: Verbal behaviour

Question FBQ33 : ----- is the first of the sounds that babies make.
Answer: Crying

Question FBQ34 : A speech that does not communicate is known as ---- speech
Answer: Egocentric

Question FBQ35 : According to Vygotsky, human beings create ----- Answer: Culture

Question MCQ1 : Which of these is not true of reading based on the opinions of Voltaire and Jefferson? Reading-----

Answer: Breeds discontent

Question MCQ2 : Which people brought Western Formal Education to Nigeria? The

Answer: Missionaries

Question MCQ3 : The social speech stage fall within which age
Answer: Before age 3

Question MCQ4 : Children's speech becomes 'other-centred' when they realize communication is -----
Answer: Two-way

Question MCQ5 : Children use language to do the following Except ----- Answer: Relate

Question MCQ6 : We express our thoughts and feelings to others either in vocal or written form by means of -----
Answer: Language

Question MCQ7 : The mimicry-memorisation techniques of language teaching is a feature of which methodologists
Answer: Constructivists

Question MCQ8 : Children learn to make finer discriminations in language through

Answer: Trial and Error

Question MCQ9 : A systematic attempt to organize and interpret observations is called
Answer: Theory

Question MCQ10 : How many language skills are there in literacy
Answer: 4

Question MCQ11 : Which of these is not one of the three themes underlying Vygotsky's theory
Answer: Language transition

Question MCQ12 : At what stage does a child moves eyes in direction of sounds?
Answer: 4-6 months

Question MCQ13 : Lenneberg and Chomsky observed that the early grammatical errors of children indicate that language acquisition is a process of Answer: Rule learning

Question MCQ14 : The following are factors Influencing Language development in the early years, except---- Answer: Rapid motor progress

Question MCQ15 : Children use language to do the following Except ---- Answer: Correct themselves

Question MCQ16 : According to Skinner, Language can be acquired through self

Answer: Reinforcement

Question MCQ17 : All but one of these are to be found in normal children's language learning process
Answer: Fixed development

Question MCQ18 : At what stage does a child do the following? · Make pleasure sounds (cooing)· Cry differently for different needs· Smile when she sees you use two syllable sounds

Answer: 10 - 13 months Birth - 3 months

Question MCQ19 : The biological views of language learning is in line with the tradition of ---

Answer: Rousseau

Question MCQ20 : Which of these is Not an ability involved in the process of learning to read

Answer: Emotional factors

Question MCQ21 : Vygotsky belonged to which school of thought

Answer: Constructivists

Question MCQ22 : ----- defined language as "the body of words and combination of words used by a nation, people or race for the purpose of communicating their thoughts".

Answer: Kluckhohn

Question MCQ23 : All But One of these are results of forcing a child to begin a specific activity before he is ready

Answer: Gives him advantage over others

Question MCQ24 : A reading approach where pupils blend individual letter sounds and group of sounds to form words is called ----- approach

Answer: Visuo-phonics

Question MCQ25 : English Language is an important communication tool in Nigeria because of its -----

Answer: Global importance

Question MCQ26 : The following are sounds children make between 0 to 1 year except -----

Answer: Clanging

Question MCQ27 : Skinner states that many human behaviours are reactions to -----

Answer: Stimuli

Question MCQ28 : Which is Not needed for developing the writing skill in the early years

Answer: Copy pasting

Question MCQ29 : All But One of these characteristics of children form the basis of the individualistic reading approach

Answer: Playing

Question MCQ30 : Language is an important factor in the overall development of a child's ----

Answer: Personality

Question MCQ31 : Which of Skinner's books contain the seed of his language learning theory

Answer: Verbal Behaviour

Question MCQ32 : Activities for developing language facility do Not include -----

Answer: Writing

Question MCQ33 : The 3Rs in learning represent ----

Answer: Reading, writing, arithmetic

Question MCQ34 : The innate mechanism which allows children process language sounds is called -----

Answer: Language acquisition device

Question MCQ35 : What does early exposure to different languages activate in children's brains that allow them switch without confusion between two languages
Answer: A device